NAOMI STUART NAMED DEPUTY DIRECTOR IN NLRB'S KANSAS CITY, KS REGIONAL OFFICE

National Labor Relations Board General Counsel Ronald Meisburg today announced the appointment of Naomi L. Stuart as Deputy Director in the Agency's Kansas City Regional Office in Overland Park, KS (Region 17). In her new position, Ms. Stuart will assist Regional Director Daniel Hubbel in enforcing the National Labor Relations Act in Kansas and Oklahoma, and in certain counties in Missouri, Iowa and Nebraska.

The NLRB investigates and remedies unfair labor practices and conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation.

Commenting on the appointment, General Counsel Meisburg remarked:

Naomi Stuart's extensive litigation experience and her dedication to the law make her highly qualified to serve as Deputy Director. Her fine analytical skills and commitment to public service will serve her well as she continues the tradition of excellence in the Kansas City Regional Office.

A native of Wichita, KS, Ms. Stuart received her B.A. degree in Anthropology from Wichita State University and M.B.A. degree from the University of Missouri at Kansas City. She was awarded her J.D. degree, cum laude, from the University of Kansas School of Law in 1975. Upon graduation, she began her NLRB career as an attorney in the Kansas City Regional Office. Ms. Stuart was promoted to Supervisory Attorney in 2004, Deputy Regional Attorney in 2005, and Regional Attorney in 2007.
